Yes, folks, it's getting closer to that time of year when you need to think about what is considered "Trashy"..... Jo Ann and Cathy are once again running the "Trashy Trip" – A/K/A Trashy Women / Trashy Men". There will be "valuable prizes" awarded on the bus on Sunday a.m. for the trashiest female and trashiest male on Saturday night. Remember – "trashy" is whatever definition you would like it to be. In addition, the dance club will be open after dinner. The Trashy Trip takes off on January 10, returning on January 12.

We will be skiing at Killington on Saturday and Pico on Sunday – keep in mind that both days are ski counsel days.

Official sign up for this trip is December 18, 2019.
